

there's a great label example the background extends over the template line and fully covers the center hole.
text smaller or thinner than this may not print clearly.

slight shifts may happen during printing which causes arched/circular text to look weird. proceed with caution.
read the full label directions for more info

